

ORDER

COURT DETAILS

Court: Coroner's Court of the Northern Territory
Case Number: A0051/2019

TITLE OF PROCEEDINGS

Inquest into the death of Kumanjayi Walker

NATURE AND DATE OF ORDER

Non-Publication/Non-Disclosure order
19 May 2025

ORDERS MADE BY THE COURT

Pursuant to s.43 of the Coroners Act 1993 (NT), and/or the Court's implied or incidental powers, the Court orders that:

1. All existing non publication / non disclosure orders made pursuant to s43 in this matter are revoked.
2. Subject to orders 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, there be no disclosure or other publication of the items listed in Table A annexed to this Order, including audio-visual and audio material.
3. Order 2 does not prevent disclosure or other publication of the items listed in Table A to Parties granted leave to appear, for the purposes of these coronial proceedings.
4. Order 2 does not prevent disclosure or other publication of the items listed in Table A to those persons assisting the Coroner in her investigation, including legal representatives, administrative staff and experts.
5. Order 2 does not prevent the NT Police Force from using or disclosing the material in Table A for the purpose of performing its statutory functions.
6. Order 2 does not prevent disclosure where required by law or where disclosure is to a statutory entity for the purposes of them performing their functions.
7. Order 2 does not prevent the disclosure or other publication of:
 - a. any evidence given, or other discussion, in open court during the Inquest;
 - b. any documents, including audio-visual and audio material, made publicly available on the coronial website (<https://agd.nt.gov.au/attorney-general-and-justice/courts/inquests-findings/kumanjayi-walker>); and,

- c. any material made publicly available by the Supreme Court of the Northern Territory.

AND THE COURT NOTES THAT:

- 8. In relation to further non publication orders sought by interested parties to the Inquest, the Court is not satisfied that the test in s43 of the Coroners Act 1993 has been met; particularly having regard to relevant material that is already widely publicly available.
